Election is an integral part of any democracy. Without the election process, a democracy cannot function. As citizens, we get the chance to appoint people who will steer affairs and make decisions on our behalf – decisions that would impact our lives and destinies. This webinar cover the following topics:

- The History of Voting in New Jersey
- The electoral structure of the process:
Who does what: the duties of governmental offices from Trenton to the municipalities
- Who can vote in New Jersey: the voter registration Requirements and procedures
- How to vote in New Jersey: voting mechanisms from voting machines to mail-in ballots
- Election Day issues: "Expect the Unexpected"
Polling place activity
Entertaining, if not legal, campaign efforts
Mother Nature's visits on election day
- Post-Election Challenges: "I can't believe I lost"
Recounts and Contests

Presenter: Donna Kelly, Esquire, Former NJ Assistant Attorney General
