10:00am–12:00 pm Webinar Timetable - $50 per person

As a Governmental employee involved in the procurement and acquisition process, you play an important role in preserving the integrity of Government contracting and assuring fair treatment of bidders, offerors, and contractors. A violation of ethics rules can cause a bid protest or undermine the public's confidence in Government. Improper conduct can also result in an administrative, civil or even criminal penalty.

Ethics laws prohibit Government employees from having financial conflicts of interest. By keeping in mind a few basic concepts, you can help ensure that contracts are awarded and administered free from improper influence or even the appearance of impropriety.

This webinar will focus on Ethics in the area of government procurement. It will include a review of recent case law, the “dos and dont's” in procurement and how to maintain an ethical environment.

Presenter: Dr. Susan Jacobucci, Esquire, Former Director DLGS
